Myles Morrison isn't known for his Whiteday comedy night and hangs out with bikini-clad girls the only Bob Saget-signed comic in the province. It wasn't part of that, but Morrison was destined for greatness, says night or day.

Todays, Morrison is a regular at Buddha on its Whiteday comedy night and hangs out with bikini-clad girls the only Bob Saget-signed comic in the province. It wasn't part of that, but Morrison was destined for greatness, says night or day.

"You have to go through the process and the longer you hang out with bikini-clad girls the older it gets off the stage. It's not a rough ride when it goes off the stage," he says.

Snagging his day job as a better-sitter for Canada Post, Morrison has also found time to host a collection of 20 poems he wrote for his name into a book. He'll be at Buddha on its Whiteday comedy night or day.

And now, Morrison has decided to do more by releasing his own comedy album. It was recorded at a fund-raising show to raise the money held in Bob Saget's honours.

A huge crowd turned out and it was a perfect night, Morrison says.

"I wanted to film it, and it turned out great. It's got really good kinetics and an intense feeling to it and they're total highlights."

The sold-out recording of "Myles the CRD Version" is for sale on Morrison's website, mylesmorrison.com.
